

Why Join Young Lawyers

Membership in the Young Lawyer

Committee (YLC) of the Camden County Bar Association (CCBA) is available to all CCBA members who have been admitted to practice within the past five years OR who are less than 35 years of age.

Our mission — to be the voice of young and recently admitted lawyers in Camden County and to be the public service arm of the Bar Association.

What Can We Do For You?

We Can . . .

Introduce you to young lawyers & other young professionals in Camden County

Involve you in our public and member service projects and presentations

Provide you with substantive CLE and practical skills seminars

Help you develop your networking skills

Offer mentoring assistance

Alert you to position openings

Involve you in social activities with colleagues & friends from the CCBA

Give you a professional advantage in your practice.

Come to our meetings, check us out, and see for yourself!
(1st Tuesday of each month, 12:30 pm @ Bar Headquarters in Cherry Hill)
